DOMESTIC MULTIFAMILY ACCOMMODATION SUBMETERED DECLARATION

Customer has requested a change of rate schedule as provided by Sections D.2.c. and D.2.e. of SCE's Rule 12, from Schedule _____ to Schedule _____ for service located at _____ (Building) and identified by SCE as Account Number _____ (Account). The following declaration is required in order to determine eligibility for service under Southern California Edison's Schedule DMS-1, Domestic Service Multifamily Accommodation - Submetered.

1. Customer declares one or more of the following conditions applies to Customer's Account: (Please check box which applies.)

- Customer is currently served on Schedule DM and has submeters installed for each tenant space.
- Building was originally constructed for a non-residential purpose, was converted to residential use before December 7, 1981, and has submeters installed for each tenant space.
- Building was originally constructed for a non-residential purpose and was converted to residential use on or after December 7, 1981 without the need for building permit, and has submeters installed for each tenant space,
- Other, please specify _____

2. Number of submeters: _____ Type of space heating: Gas Electric

3. Customer understands that if Customer is found eligible for service under Schedule DMS-1:

- a. When service under Schedule DMS-1 commences, tenants shall be billed with separately identifiable charges for their electric consumption as if served under an applicable SCE residential rate schedule, and Customer shall reduce the rent charged to tenants to reflect the removal of the energy related charges currently embedded in the rental charge for the duration of the lease.
- b. SCE has the right to inspect the customer's premises and electrical equipment to determine if, in SCE's opinion, a change in operating/billing conditions has occurred.
- c. The effective date of the change to service under Schedule DMS-1 shall be the next regularly-scheduled billing period following (1) the date of the written request to SCE for the change of rate schedule, (2) the date, verified by SCE, of the change in operating/billing conditions, or (3) the date this Declaration is signed by Customer, whichever is later.
- d. This Declaration in no way alters, replaces or supersedes the provisions of Rule 12 or Rule 18.

By signing this Declaration, I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information submitted regarding the change in operating/billing conditions for the account specified in this document is true and accurate.
