

Rule No. 1
DEFINITIONS

Sheet 1

For the purposes of these tariff schedules, the terms and expressions listed below shall have the meanings set forth opposite them:

Applicant: A person or agency requesting the Company to supply water service.

Business Service: Provision of water for use in connection with commercial premises devoted primarily to operations for profit including offices, stores, markets, apartments, hotels, motels, automobile trailer parks or courts, service stations, and the like.

Commercial Service: Provision of water to residential premises or business premises.

Company: Southern California Edison Company (See Utility).

Customer: The person in whose name service is rendered as evidenced by the signature on the application, contract, or agreement for that service, or, in the absence of a signed instrument, by the receipt and payment of bills regularly issued in his name regardless of the identity of the actual user of the service.

Date of Presentation: The date upon which a bill or notice is mailed, or delivered by the Company, to the customer.

Domestic Service: Service for residential use at a dwelling premises (See Residential Service).

Elderly Residential Customer: Any residential customer who is age 62 or over.

Flat Rate Service: Service for which the charges are based upon the types and numbers of units served.

Handicapped Residential Customer: Any residential customer whose health or physical condition may qualify him for special consideration, when certified by a licensed physician, public health nurse, or social worker.

Industrial Service: Provision of water to industrial premises where the water is used primarily in manufacturing or processing activities.

Irrigation Service: Provision of water for commercial agricultural, floricultural, or horticultural use and billed under distinct irrigation rates.

Main Extension: The extension of water distribution mains beyond existing facilities in accordance with the provisions of the rule applicable to main extensions filed as part of these tariff schedules.

Metered Service: Service for which the charges are computed on the basis of measured quantities of water.

Premises: All of the real property and apparatus employed in a single enterprise on an integral parcel of land undivided, excepting in the case of industrial, agricultural, oil field, resort enterprises, and public or quasi-public institutions, by a dedicated street, highway, or other public thoroughfare, or a railway.

Public Utilities Commission: The Public Utilities Commission of the State of California.

Residential Service: Provision of water for domestic use at a dwelling premises, including water used on the premises for sprinkling lawns; gardens and shrubbery; washing vehicles; and other similar and customary purposes pertaining to single or multiple family dwellings.

Service Connection: The point of connection of the customer's piping or ditch with the meter, service pipe, or ditch owned by the Company.

Service Pipe: The connection between the Company's mains and the service connection, including all of the pipe, fittings, and valves necessary to make the connection.

Tariff Schedules: The entire body of effective rates, rentals, charges, and rules collectively of the Company, as set forth herein, and including title page, preliminary statement, service area maps, rate schedules, list of contracts and deviations, rules, and sample forms.

Tariff Sheet: An individual sheet of the tariff schedules.

Utility: Southern California Edison Company.

(To be inserted by utility)

Advice 28-W
Decision 83-06-065

Issued by
Edward A. Myers, Jr.
Vice President

(To be inserted by Cal. PUC)

Date Filed Aug 4, 1983
Effective Aug 9, 1983
Resolution _____